Mark Edelman Named to Cambridge 2024 Signature Club

Qualifiers will be recognized at Cambridge's Signature Club Conference in March

Houston, TX – November 7, 2023 – Mark Edelman of King Capital Advisors, Inc. has been named to Cambridge Investment Research, Inc.'s (Cambridge) 2024 Signature Club. Signature Club is among the top honors granted by the financial solution's firm, and qualifiers have demonstrated their commitment to excellence while upholding an independent mindset. The recognition celebrates those financial professionals who demonstrate a commitment to serving their clients while representing Cambridge's core values of integrity, commitment, flexibility, and kindness.

Signature Club qualifiers will be recognized at the annual Signature Club event to be held in Amelia Island, Florida, in March 2024. The event provides an opportunity for members to network with other independent financial professionals that have demonstrated their exemplary commitment to service, as well as members of Cambridge's senior leadership team. The Signature Club event offers honorees the chance to learn from industry leaders, stay up-to-date on the latest trends and updates in financial services, and hone their skills with exclusive educational opportunities. The event will not only provide ample opportunities to make connections and gain in-depth industry knowledge, but also aims to provide financial professionals with renewed motivation and the tools needed to serve their clients at the highest level.

"Mark Edelman has demonstrated their commitment to service, and we applaud Mark Edelman's achievements over the last 12 months," said Cambridge President of Growth and Development, Jeff Vivacqua. "At Cambridge, we are committed to fostering a service-centric culture, and work to provide opportunities for financial professionals to enhance their skills by sharing their different viewpoints and learning from their colleagues. We are honored to have Mark Edelman as a part of Cambridge's Signature Club."
